IN THE UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

In re:

DELPHI CORPORATION, et al.,

Debtors.

Chapter 11

Case No. 05-44481 (RDD)

(Jointly Administered)

LIMITED OBJECTION OF MOLEX, INC. TO MOTION FOR ORDER APPROVING ASSUMPTION PROCEDURES

Molex, Inc ("Molex"), through its counsel, Sonnenschein Nath & Rosenthal, LLP, hereby files this limited objection to the Debtors' Motion for an Order Approving Procedures to Assume Certain Agreements, and states as follows:

The Assumption Procedures Motion proposes a template to assume certain agreements on significantly modified terms and also permits certain variations on that template unless the Creditors Committee objects to the deal with the variations. The template does not meet certain important requirements which are legally required to assume an agreement under Section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code (like payment of a full cure cost and assumption of a contract on its existing terms) and also imposes additional requirements such an extension on the agreement.

To the extent that a modified written deal acceptable to us can be reached, we have no objections to the procedures. To the extent, however, that certain provisions in the proposed order could be read to apply even in the absence of a signed modified agreed deal due to alleged acceptance or waiver through shipments or inaction, we do object and believe such provisions are beyond this Court's powers under Sections 365, 363 and other applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code.

In particular, we believe that the defined term "Covered Suppliers", proposed findings B and C and Decretal Paragraphs 4, 5, 9 and 10 need to be modified or clarified so that only vendors who reach a signed modification agreement which is acceptable to them and Delphi are bound by such concessions, modifications and waivers.

We otherwise reserve our rights and defenses, including, without limitation, with respect to all matters relating to executory contracts and alleged executory contracts.
